your email group is meaningless, your effectiveness non-existent. Gettlefinger & Co has made you into nothing but ineffective little fools who feel better for venting frustrations amongst yourselves. the sit downers who struggled to achieve recognition would be ashamed were they still alive. you people are without question meaningless except for some small concept of therapy amongst your meaningless selves. you basically have no balls and are totally ineffective.

A Line From Rimbaud (French Poet, 1854-1891)
— or Tell the FBI, "Art's Dead"

We can take it out on our wives, our teenage sons, the neighbor's dog.

We can speed, get drunk, break glass, smoke three cigarettes in a row.

We can sabotage a machine, poke fun at a spineless boss.

But how does one confront a Battenberg, a Wagoner, a Miller, or Dick Dauch when

They announce to the press on the nineteenth green they intend to cut thousands of jobs?

As if a job didn't mean a husband, a father, a wife, a mother, a home, a family.

How does one confront the corporation that cuts retiree health care?

And demands wage cuts that condemn employees to a life of poverty?

Bottom feeders like Wilbur Ross who call bankruptcy success, trash pensions, and celebrate?

Or change company names and resurface making the same product for higher profit

And lower wages, no pensions, or health care for surviving spouses?

We won't win at the bargaining table where negotiators on both sides all wear ties and play golf together.

We won't win in court where judges dine elbow to elbow with donors who pay more per plate than we make in a week.

We can only win in the streets with hands and arms and legs and feet. We can't win unless we beat the bastards senseless.

Then maybe we can talk sense. Then maybe they will listen. But first we have to teach them a lesson.

Arm yourselves to the teeth. Abandon the hideouts. Take the war to the streets.

Make the sons of bitches pay. We have nothing left to lose but our dignity.

"Now is the Time of the Assassins."

sos, Gregg Shotwell

to my fellow sos members,

please excuse the vented frustration, as I am sure most of you feel similarly that in spite of our efforts the ship is sinking. somewhere, somehow, there must be something that can be done to offset the brutal assault upon our livelihoods. like you, I am feeling the squeeze and want to fight back. we simply must find effective ways of dealing with this tremendous difficulty.

in solidarity,

Buickman
