

Saying NO!

You are not being greedy or stupid by saying no.

Saying no means you do not agree that we should give more up and have less again.

Saying no means that your government is supposed to serve your needs, not that you are supposed to serve the agenda of a government bent on breaking our unions in their race to the bottom.

Saying no means that you are not the cause of the problem and are not accepting the blame.

Saying no means that YOU have the right to send a clear message that enough is actually enough and stop what is becoming a habit of taking from the people in this situation who can least afford to give it.

Saying no means that when things turn around for these companies and they're back to making profits we won't be the people begging for help from a government who has shown us very clearly how little we matter!

Saying no means that we WILL remember who these people are that are asking us to say yes, and when the shoe is on the other foot and they need our support we will be in a better position to say thanks BUT NO!
