In anticipation of Earth Day, CLASA brings you this evening event exploring the topic of

Climate Change

Monday, April 16, 7 p.m., Briggs 310 UDM McNichols campus

A showing of the film, “The Age of Stupid,” and discussion led by Frank Hammer

The Age of Stupid stars Oscar-nominated Pete Postlethwaite as a man living in the devastated future world of 2055, looking back at old footage from our time and asking: why didn't we stop climate change when we had the chance? Multi-award-winning documentary director Franny Armstrong... spent four years following seven real people's stories to be interweaved with Pete Postlethwaite's fictional character: an Indian entrepreneur struggling to start a new low-cost airline, a Shell employee in New Orleans who rescued more than 100 people during Hurricane Katrina, an 82-year-old French mountain guide watching his beloved glaciers melt, two Iraqi refugee children searching for their elder brother, a young woman living in desperate poverty in Nigeria's richest oil area and a windfarm developer in Britain battling the NIMBYs who don't want his turbines to spoil their view. The Age of Stupid led to the formation of the 10:10 carbon reduction campaign which now operates in 45 countries (www.1010global.org).

Frank Hammer is a retired UAW International Representative & former President of UAW Local 909 (Warren). He is the President of the Greenacres Woodward Civic Association (GWCA), Detroit. He recently returned from an international conference in South Africa that focused on the topic of social ownership of renewable energy.

This event is sponsored by the James Carney Latin American Solidarity Archive (CLASA), and co-sponsored by Detroit Area Peace with Justice Network (DAPJN). Programs are free and open to the public, and are held at UDM's McNichols Campus (4001 W McNichols at Livernois). For more info call Director Gail Presbey, 313-993-1124 or <presbegm@udmercy.edu>.
